2. Vague / Messy Contract

The Service Provider will do the thing in a reasonable way, unless something else happens.

The Client may request changes whenever they feel it's appropriate, and the Provider should try to accommodate if possible.

Payment terms will be figured out mutually at some later date and are expected to be fair.

Liability is handled in a way that makes sense depending on circumstances.

3. High-Risk Legal Contract

Provider is not liable for any damages, including gross negligence, misconduct, or intentional harm.

Client must pay all fees regardless of service performance or delivery disputes.

Provider may terminate immediately for any reason without notice.

Client waives all rights to dispute resolution except binding arbitration governed solely by Provider.

4. Enterprise-Style Vendor Agreement

The Vendor shall implement industry-standard controls aligned with ISO 27001 and SOC 2 for protection of Client Data.

All deliverables shall meet enterprise-grade service levels including 99.95% uptime, 24/7 support, and response times under 30 minutes.

Vendor shall comply with all applicable laws including data protection, cross-border transfers, and record retention obligations.

Any subcontractors engaged by Vendor shall adhere to obligations no less strict than those defined herein.
